

Summary

While the visit of the Iranian politician Abdul Ali Khan, "Adib King" of the city of Kufa and the mosques of "Kufa" and "easy" and the recording of his observations, one of the main resources of researchers and interested in the history of the mosques, as it seeks to explore them and their reality in the middle of the nineteenth century, Such a second motivation in the selection of research.

In the middle of the nineteenth century AD, the Iranian sultan Abdul-Ali Khan, Adib al-Malik, visited the Kufa and Al-Sahla mosques in the holy city of Kufa, the era of Ottoman domination. It is of great importance to eliminate the pests that afflicted the two Ottoman- In the course of the ages, except the religious and doctrinal differences, until they often reached the fighting, the fighting and the bloodshed, and the This visit came to wipe out the black page that was written between them in the past ages and to create a state of coexistence Tuberculosis J and peace, the industry state of understanding and rapprochement between Islamic sects, which in turn reflected on the situation of the cities of the holy shrines in Iraq, the Iranians Kantzam visit her ... and others.