

Research Summary in English

This research deals with the subject of masculinity and femininity in the unfinished Gibran literary. This has been reflected in the adoption of Gibran marginalized women's issues in society, and called for equality with men in rights and duties, and selected a suitable husband has denounced Guran marriage of coercion and blessed marriage based on pure love and highlighted the oppression and exclusion and oppression against women by religious and political authorities. Christian towns, it has been Gibran refuse that women are a commodity bought and sold and suppress will .