

Summary

So our research came to be an attempt to come up with some concepts that might help to show the reality of alkhiam and rubaeiat, by studying the philosophical correlation in the rubaeiat with the philosophical thought of Greek philosophers and major philosophers such as Socrates and Applutin, was the research revolves around the first two axes about the art of rubaeiat and rules and origins and conditions of writing and the second axis On the philosophy of alkhiam through the rubaeiat with a historical introduction to this axis of the beginnings of philosophy and its impact on Islamic philosophy, with an introduction and conclusion and a list of the most important sources that benefited the researcher in writing research.