

Abstract:

The search for the descendants of Imam Hassan al-Sabt bin Ali bin Abi Talib (عليه السلام), in the city of Hilla, that city, which is in an important area between Baghdad and Kufa, as well as nearby a number of historic cities, which was able to accommodate a number of sons of Imam Hassan (عليه السلام), as a result of being subjected to imprisonment in the Hashemite region, near Hilla, as the political capital of the Abbasids after Kufa before their transfer to Anbar, and thus embraced Hilla these pure offspring, the research faced several difficulties, including the lack of information and scarce resources, Especially for some characters, and the overlap of information among others.