

Summary

The linguists and grammarians have been alerted to the importance of these letters and their effect in linking the words to each other and changing their meanings to collect the multiple meanings. Therefore, special attention has been given to them in the attempts of many of them to set limits for this term. And on the other hand to determine the meanings of those letters and to show their secrets and methods of use. And that one of the most important of these letters (the non), has put some scholars of the Arabic literature of his own; to explain the meanings and sections and conditions of work, while others devote chapters or chapters in their books

And the dispute occurred in the origin of its meanings, so went to the group that the origin of the meaning is the king, and others went to the merit is the origin of the meanings, and some of them felt that the meaning of jurisdiction to give up the king and merit. The grammarians differed in permitting the deletion of the infallible woman, while keeping her work and saying in it four: it is permissible to do so in particular, and this is not permissible at all, and it is permissible to do so after the statement of Amri and his passport after the saying.
