

Summary

The aim of the study is to identify the researchers and students of science and society in the content of the sermon of Jumada Karbala and its role in social reform and uncover the citizens of corruption in society and develop solutions to those obstacles and problems according to the legitimate and ideological, national and social. In the theoretical aspect of the study, we discussed the concept of the Friday sermon, its objectives, characteristics, importance, how it is different, and then thought and communication in the analytical aspect. The descriptive approach was used in the method of analysis of the number of the twenty-seven sermons, after dividing them into main and subcategories through extrapolation, Then we reached the search results.

The speech has been and continues to have an active role and decisive impact in the processes of human change, whether in the religious, scientific, intellectual, political, economic, social and military, because speech is the container of meaning and its messenger to the hearts and minds, which is the understanding through which humans. And the Islamic religion is the religion of humanity for all time and place did not miss the role of the sermon, but put it in its proper framework, making it the means to guide people and raise awareness of the community and the preparation of the good generation, has employed Islam Friday sermon in the call for noble values and ideals and superiority and morality virtuous to reach from heart to heart and thought to It is not surprising that the Friday sermon that precedes the Friday prayer, which is obligatory every week, is considered one of the tenets of Islam. It is through this Islamic platform that was spread in the lands of Islam that the concepts of the doctrine and the teachings of the Shari'a And the biography of prophets and imams, righteous and Mujahideen. Through this rostrum, many problems have been dealt with by Islamic visions, which have instilled in the heart of the recipient the spirit of jihad and reform. The listener is aware of the corruption, loss and perversion of life, as well as the role of immortal Islam and of those who died in the path of Jihad. The study dealt with the concept of the Friday sermon, its types, its objectives, its importance and its characteristics. The third topic was a khutbah (sermon) The fourth topic is the descriptive descriptive study of the twenty-seven sermons of Karbala. Today, we live in a changing world that is witnessing a tremendous explosion of knowledge, in which speech methods have been varied, and There were many references and concepts in which concepts and ideas, so it was necessary to root rules and methodology of ideas according to the vision on which the research is based.