

Research Abstract

The research highlights the efforts of Ibn Idris linguistic ornaments in his entourage to the newspaper and the carpet Ibn Idriss method in the position of his views on the language of the newspaper, the symbol of his views in the letter (Q), and the transfer from the book of the Sahih al-Jawhari letter (r).

Ibn Idris put his brief comment, which he called "Ibn Idris's footnote on the daily newspaper," which is one of the most valuable footnotes in which he rejected the opinions of some of the Arab scholars who preceded him. His effort has appeared in a variety of meanings and connotations.
