

Research Summary

"Ibn Rushd tried to respond to the philosophers, especially by saying that the world is old and ancient, as philosophers are not the first to have a " old ezili ", especially adherents Aristotle and those who followed him from the dhimr, who made weak arguments in proving the eternal world of the evidence that was drowned and recited by the speakers such as al-Ghazali, Ibn Taymiyyah, al-Juwaini and al-Kundi who said that the world and its non-ecclesiasticity are taking place