

Abstract:

This research paper seeks to find sufficient scientific answers to many questions that arise regarding the interaction of linguistic, social and cultural systems in the multilingual and multicultural society, on the one hand, and on the effectiveness of (Socio-Linguistic Approach) and (Socio-Cultural) In the promotion and enhancement of inter-disciplinary on the other.

This study is built upon strategic questions related to the reality of the interaction of linguistic systems in terms of communicative patterns in the multilingual and multicultural society ‘we mentioned some questions for their importance:

How can we invest in a profound scientific awareness in the accomplishments of knowledge and methodology achieved in the inter-disciplinary to promote the social linguistic approach, and to update its procedural mechanisms and constantly update it?

What are the effective methods that can be used to employ linguistic, social and cultural pillars in the inter-approach of the phenomenon of the interaction of linguistic systems and their overlap?

What are the ways to integrate linguistic diglossia and bilingualism in an interactive movement of a multilingual and multicultural society ?