

Abstract

The study aims to know how much the intellectual activity benefits from dismantling finding, studying the critic concept described as a scientific speech and integrated project for two critics who tackled with the Arabian concept and mind under obvious critical title of (Criticizing the mind), they are (Mohammed Abid Aljabiry) and (Mohammed Arkon) because their project is basically a dismantling project, relies on destruction and anatomy, these are evidences work on dismantling speeches and mental systems, and discovering the directors of that speech and its structure, they relied on the a fact states that the critic is guilty, reviewing the concepts that Arabian mind was based on, consequently that pushed them to vacuuming all meanings that Arabian mind was based on and undermining its centralization internally.